Firestore collections and who may write them

Every document carries an owning userId, which turns each security rule into one equality check.

Written by the signed-in owner · Cloud Functions through the Admin SDK system/status is a single document, written only by the sweep.